

"I ardently support the FISTS petition". The deletion of the code requirement will only bring the Amateur Radio Service one step closer to CB radio. The demonstration of greater expertise in Morse code should be required for higher class licenses if there is to be any meaningful difference between the classes of licenses.